Engagement

Bloch — Levinson

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Bloch of Chislett Street announce the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy, to Mr. Louis Levinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hyman Levinson of North Euclid Avenue. Their marriage will take place in January.

Weddings

Amdur — Grinberg

On Sunday evening, October 10, Miss Dorothy Charlotte Amdur, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel J. Amdur of Shady Avenue, became the bride of Mr. Bernard J. Grinberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Meyer I. Grinberg of Homestead. A dinner preceding the wedding for the immediate families and the ceremony were held in the Beth Shalom Synagogue. Rabbi Benjamin Lichter and Rabbi Pincus of Homestead officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin and a white satin and lace redingote, with a Queen Elizabeth collar and ornamented with pearls, which was fashioned into a full-length train. Her hip-length veil fell from a halo of satin and tulle trimmed with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and lilies-of-the-valley.

The bride was attended by Miss Miriam Amdur, her sister, as maid of honor, wearing a gown of old rose taffeta trimmed with rust velvet and carrying a bouquet of Talisman roses and larkspur. The bridesmaids, Miss Hilda Grinberg, sisters of the groom, and Mrs. Ralph Grinberg, sister-in-law of the groom, both wore gowns of Prussian blue satin and they carried bouquets of roses tied with powder blue ribbon. Betty Jane Chaitkin, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl, who wore a baby blue georgette frock. She carried a basket tied with yellow ribbon and filled with pink and yellow rose petals.

The bride's mother was attired in a gown of royal blue velvet and the groom's mother in a gown of black crepe. They wore corsages of Talisman roses.

The groom was attended by his brother, Allen, as best man, and the ushers were Mr. Ralph Grinberg and Mr. Leonard Grinberg. The music during the ceremony was played by Mr. David Broudy, uncle of the groom, and Mr. Ralph Harrison, a cousin.

A reception for the families and friends followed the ceremony, and later Mr. and Mrs. Bernard J. Grinberg left for New York. They sailed Wednesday, October 13, on the S.S. Corinthia for a cruise to Nassau and Havana. They will spend some time in New York before returning to Pittsburgh, where they will be at home at 5624 Hempstead Road.

The out-of-town guests present were Mrs. Joseph Swados of Buffalo, N. Y., and Mr. and Mrs. David Amdur, Eleanor Amdur, William Amdur and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Zare, all of Cleveland, Ohio.

Goldstein — Baer

Miss Rowena Goldstein, daughter of Mrs. Bessie Goldstein of Brighton Road, has chosen Thursday, October 21, as the date for her marriage to Dr. Townsend W. Baer, son of Mrs. Emma Baer of Beacon Street. The ceremony will take place in the Schenley Hotel at 11:45 a. m. with Rabbi Abba Fineberg of Niagara Falls officiating. Rabbi Fineberg is a cousin of the bride and groom-elect. A wedding breakfast will follow. Dr. Baer and his bride will sail on the S.S. Carinthia October 23 for a cruise to the West Indies.

Hommel — Weiner

Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Hommel of Bartlett Street announce the marriage of their daughter Ruth to Mr. Julia Karl Weiner of Pittsburgh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Weiner of New York. The ceremony took place on Monday, October 11, at noon in the home of the bride with Dr. Solomon B. Freehof officiating.

The bride was attired in a grape-colored sheer wool frock, with a felt hat to match trimmed with romany blue ribbon and veil. She carried wine-colored orchids. The bride's mother wore black satin, and also the bridegroom's mother, both with shoulder sprays of gardenias. The house was beautifully decorated with fall flowers and foliage. Mr. and Mrs. Weiner left after the wedding breakfast for New York, and are enjoying a cruise to the West Indies. They will be at home about November 1 at the Schenley Apartments.

Hoffman — Lockhart

Mrs. Dorothy Hoffman of 5855 Alderson Street announces the marriage of her daughter, Lillian, to Mr. Irwin Lockhart, son of Mrs. Sarah Lockhart, 215 S. Mathilda Street, on Sunday, October 10, at 12 o'clock p. m. The marriage was solemnized by Rabbi Benjamin A. Lichter. Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Lockhart will be at home at 5845 Alderson Street, Apartment 13, after November 1.

Farkas — Stern

The Congregation Poale Zedeck was the scene of one of the most charmingly appointed weddings of the season on Sunday, October 10, when Miss Regina Farkas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Farkas of Electric Avenue, East Pittsburgh, became the bride of Mr. Leonard Stern, son of Mrs. Rose Stern of Braddock Avenue, East Pittsburgh. The marriage ceremony was solemnized at 4:30 o'clock that afternoon with Rabbi Joseph Shapiro and Rev. J. L. Alpert officiating.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory satin, her long ivory tulle veil was arranged in a poke bonnet effect and she carried a bridal bouquet of yellow tea roses showered with lilies of the valley and orchids. Mrs. Louis Weinberger, aunt of the bride, who was matron of honor, was gowned in royal blue satin and carried a bouquet of pink tea roses. Miss Ruth Stern, sister of the groom, was gowned in wallis blue, and carried a bouquet of butterfly roses. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Lawrence Farkas, Miss Dorothy Green and Miss Selma Weiss, who were dressed alike in pastel shades, all carrying bouquets of pink roses. Mr. Lawrence Farkas, brother of the bride, was best man and the ushers were Messrs. William Stern, Hyman Farkas and Louis Silver. The flower girl was Phillis Farkas, cousin of the bride. Master Morton Seltman was ring bearer. Mrs. Louis Farkas, mother of the bride, wore a gown of grey blue trimmed with sequins with a corsage of talisman roses. Mrs. Rose Stern, mother of the groom, wore a dubon-
