

DEATHS

PATRICK F. NAGLE

Patrick F. Nagle, a lifelong resident of Lowell, died yesterday at his home, 48 Robbins street, after an illness of a few days. Mr. Nagle was born in Lowell, the son of the late Richard and Abbie (O'Connor) Nagle and attended the Lowell schools. He was a veteran of World War I, serving in France with the 10th Combat Company, U. S. Army. For many years he was a railway mail clerk working at the North Station transfer station. He was an attendant of St. Margaret's church and a member of the Holy Name society. Mr. Nagle is survived by his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth T. (Sullivan) Nagle; four daughters, Mrs. Joseph R. Griffin, Virginia M. Nagle, Jean E. Nagle and Barbara A. Nagle; a brother, Richard Nagle; three grandchildren, Patricia, Mary Elizabeth and Joseph Griffin; also several nieces and nephews. He was a member of the Railway Mail Clerks association.

MRS. CECILIA GAMACHE

Mrs. Cecilia (Noro) Gamache, wife of Edmond Gamache, died last night at St. Joseph's hospital after a long illness. She was born in Michigan and had been a resident of this community for over half a century making her home at 12 Cass avenue in Dracut. Mrs. Gamache was one of the founders of St. Louis de France and St. Therese churches. She was a member of the Ste. Anne sodality of St. Louis and Ste. Therese parishes of which she was president a few years ago, also the Third Order of St. Francis of St. Louis church. She was a member of the League of Catholic Women, the Mothers Guild of Keith Hall, the bread fund of the Franco-American orphanage and the Society of the Propagation of the Faith. Besides her husband, Edmond Gamache of Dracut, she is survived by two sons, Edmond A. and Arthur R., both of Dracut; three daughters, Miss Edna Gamache, Mrs. Loretta Krawczyk and Mrs. Robert R. Proulx, all of Dracut; four sisters, Mrs. Rose Anna Morin and Mrs. Hermelegilde Tanguay, both of Lowell, Mrs. Arthur White of Dracut, and Mrs. Louis Sans-Carter of Paterson, N. J.; four grandchildren; also several nieces and nephews.

TWO FIRE CALLS
LOWELL—The crews of Engine 2 and Truck 2, directed by Acting Deputy Chief Thomas J. Burke responded to an alarm at 8:33 o'clock this morning and checked a short circuit in a television set at 764 Broadway.

A faulty water sprinkler system brought out fire companies to the old Davis and Sargent lumber company site on Middlesex street at 9:46 o'clock last night. There was no fire.

First transcontinental telegraph line was completed October 24, 1861, nearly eight years before the continent was crossed by rail.

Parked Car Looted

LOWELL—George J. Poirier, of 87 Crawford street, reported to Sergt. Thomas Davey that the car he parked on Suffolk street early this morning, was looted while he was eating in a nearby restaurant.

Poirier said he parked his car at 12:30 a. m. on Suffolk street between Market and Merrimack, and when he returned a half hour later found both front fenders flat after air valves had been removed. Two vision mirrors were stolen from their brackets and the car radio wires damaged.

The car owner said he suspected five servicemen who were loitering in the vicinity when he entered the restaurant. Police are investigating.

Federal judges are appointed for life by the president, with the approval of the senate.
