

Edith E. Koza, Charles R. HamiltonMrs. Charles R. Hamilton

ADAMS—Edith Ellen Koza, daughter of Mrs. Ignatius J. Koza of 7 Daniels Ct., and the late Mr. Koza was married Saturday to Charles Ross Hamilton of Virginia Beach, Va. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mohammed Roozrokh of Teheran, Iran.

The 11 a.m. wedding ceremony was performed by the Rev. Frederick Banas in the St. Stanislaus Kostka Church. "The Friends" performed the vocals. A reception was held at the Adams Berkshire Inn.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Dr. Bernard F. Koza, wore a Victorian floor length gown of white sateen adorned with Cluny and Venice lace. A wide satin ribbon, terminating in a back bow with long streamers, accented the high-rise waist. A ruffle of Cluny lace encircled the hem of the full skirt.

Her full length veil, edged with matching Cluny lace, was caught to a lace covered Camelot cap. She carried a cascade bouquet of white miniature carnations, yellow roses and blue baby's breath with ivy trim.

Mrs. Robert Belanger of Adams, the bride's twin sister, served as her matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Chaput of Clarksburg and Mrs. Robert McGinn of Chicopee, both friends of the bride.

The bridegroom's brother, Hamid Roozrokh, of Virginia Beach, Va., served as best man. Ushers were Dr. John Ayromloo of Bethpage, N.Y., the bridegroom's brother-in-law, and Raymond L. Koza of Cheshire, the bride's brother.

The maid of honor wore an emerald green knit A line gown that featured a scoop neck, long jacket and maribou trimmed scarf. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow pompons, green and white button pompons and green baby's breath.

The bridesmaids dresses were fashioned in the same style as the maid of honor's but in electric blue color. Their colonial bouquets were of yellow pompons with blue larkspur, white pompons and blue baby's breath.

The bride is a 1970 graduate of Adams Memorial High School and a 1974 graduate of North Adams State College where she received a Bachelor of Science degree in education. She taught fifth grade at St. Stanislaus Kostka School for one year.

Mr. Hamilton attended the International Music Conservatory of Tehran. He received a Bachelor of Science degree in Linguistics from the Iran-America Society Academic Center where he then taught English and Persian. He worked as a translator and public relations officer for the United States Information Service and served in the U.S. Navy at Norfolk, Va. as public affairs officer for three years. He is presently employed by the Hospital Data Center of Virginia as a computer specialist and is attending Tidewater College.

After a wedding trip to Washington D.C. the couple will make their home, after Oct. 18, at 317 16th St., Virginia Beach, Va.

Kathleen A. Carnese, Gary Brallier

FAIRFIELD, Conn.—Kathleen Ann Carnese, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Carnese of Fairfield and Monterey, Mass., was married Sept. 20 to Gary Brallier, son of the Rev. Dr. Virgil V. Brallier and Mrs. Brallier of Monterey, formerly of North Adams.

The Rev. Michael Boccaccio and the Rev. Dr. Brallier, former pastor of the First Congregational Church, North Adams, performed the 11 a.m. ceremony in St. Pius X Church here.

Denise Carnese was maid of honor for her sister, Paula Carnese and Donna Brallier were bridesmaids.

Stanley Brallier was best man for his brother. Ushers were Eugene Duca and James Dutcher.

A reception at the Patterson Club of Fairfield followed, after which the couple left on a wedding trip to Bermuda.

Mrs. Brallier is a graduate of Southern Connecticut State College and is employed as a researcher.

Mr. Brallier, a graduate of Berkshire Community College, is a contractor.

Christy H. MacArthur, Gerald L. Burdick

WILLIAMSTOWN—Christy Helene MacArthur, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David L. MacArthur of May Street, and Gerald Lee Burdick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Burdick of 45 Windom Ter., North Adams, were married in an evening ceremony Saturday, Oct. 4, performed by J. Elwood Lamphear, justice of the peace, at his home on Moorland Street.

A family reception followed at the home of the bride's parents.

Christine Burdick of North Adams, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor and Gregory Burdick of North Adams, was his brother's best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Burdick are residing in North Adams.

Janet F. Dodge, Timothy G. BartlettMrs. Timothy G. Bartlett

READSBORO, Vt.—Timothy Glenn Bartlett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burton E. Bartlett of Gates Avenue, Clarksburg, took as his bride, Saturday, Janet Faith Dodge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph O. Dodge of Hoosac Tunnel.

The 11 a.m. ceremony in the First Baptist Church here was performed by the pastor, the Rev. Charles Hartman. Robert Brawley was organist and vocal music was by the Pinkertons.

A reception at the Eagles Home in North Adams followed. Darlene Mowe of Adams was in charge of the guest book and the wedding cake was made by the bridegroom's sister, Virginia Thompson of North Adams.

Cheryl L. Dodge of Hoosac Tunnel was her sister's maid of honor. Mrs. Thompson, Debra Green of Wilmington, Vt., sister-in-law of the bride, and Lynn Roche of North Adams, a friend, were bridesmaids. Terry and Tina Green of Adams, nieces of the bride, were flower girls.

James Thompson of North Adams was best man for his brother-in-law. Kevin Dodge of Hoosac Tunnel, the bride's brother, Gary Burro of Adams, a friend, Glenn St. Pierre of Cheshire, and Stephen St. Pierre of North Adams, his cousins, ushered. Scott Thompson, the bridegroom's nephew, was ring bearer.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of satin with an overlay of chiffon made with shirred bodice, stand-up collar, and full bishop sleeves. Bands of Venice lace accented the collar, ruffled flounce and cuffs. Lace and miniature pink rose appliques dotted the full skirt terminated in a chapel train.

Her full length and fingertip silk illusion veil edged with matching lace was attached to a camelot headpiece trimmed with seed pearls and rose appliques. She carried a bouquet of pink roses surrounded by white carnations.

The maid of honor wore a gown similar to the bride's of multicolored floral print chiffon with turquoise chiffon lining and sleeves. She had a matching wide brimmed picture hat with a shoulder-length floral chiffon sash.

She carried a colonial bouquet of white pompons around a center of turquoise flowers and white satin streamers.

The bridesmaids wore gowns of chiffon floral print over pastel lavender, pink and yellow taffeta respectively. They were made with high waists, lace trimmed bibbed fronts with stand-up collars, and solid colored sheer chiffon sleeves with wide cuffs. Their picture hats also had shoulder length sashes. They carried colonial bouquets of white pompons with centers to match their gowns.

The flower girls' pink dresses had cap sleeves, stand-up collars, and ruffled chiffon floral print pinafores which tied in back. They carried miniature bouquets of white pompons surrounding pink centers, and white satin streamers.

The gown of the bride and maid of honor were made by their mother. Each bridesmaid made her own gown.

Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett have left on a wedding trip to Bermuda and will reside at 41 Apemont St., Adams, after Oct. 25. The bride, a licensed practical nurse, is employed at the Berkshire Rehabilitation Center in Pittsfield. She is a 1973 graduate of Drury High School and a 1974 graduate of the McCann School of Practical Nursing.

Mr. Bartlett, an automobile mechanic with Ott & Berger in Williamstown, was graduated in 1974 from the McCann School where he took the automotive course.

WeddingsPatricia J. Briggs, Robert N. Wright

NORTH ADAMS—Patricia Jean Briggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis H. Briggs of 47 North Holden St., became the bride of Robert Norman Wright, son of Ruth E. Wright of 4 Cherokee Drive, Wheel Estates, Saturday at 11 a.m. in the First Baptist Church.

The Rev. Dr. Paul C. Klose, pastor, performed the ceremony. Kenneth B. Licht was organist and Esther P. Chilson was soloist.

A reception at the Wheel Estates Recreation Hall followed. Claudia Jean Wright, the bridegroom's sister, was in charge of the guest book.

The bride had her sister, Debra Elaine Briggs, as maid of honor.

Robert Mossolani, a friend of the bridegroom, was best man. Stanley Weslowski of Cheshire and Ronald E.

Sherman, friends of the bridegroom, ushered.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a blue gown with a matching blue lace veil. She had a corsage of pink carnations.

Her honor attendant also was gowned in blue and had a corsage of pink carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright will live at 11 Burt St., Adams, when they return from a wedding trip to Montreal, Canada.

The bride is a student at the McCann School.

The bridegroom, who is employed by Waverly Fabrics in Adams, attended Clarksburg Elementary School and Drury High School, and received a high school Equivalency Certificate from Greenfield Community College.

Mary A. B. Gamache, Leslie J. CarterMrs. Leslie J. Carter

NORTH ADAMS—St. Anthony's Church was the setting Saturday for the wedding of Mary Anne Bernadette Gamache of 42 Tyler St., daughter of the late Ernest A. and Mary A. (Modena) Gamache, and Leslie John Carter of 191 Summer St., Lee, son of the late John L. and Nellie (Ridley) Carter of London, England.

The ceremony was performed during a Nuptial Mass at 11 a.m., by the Rev. Eugene J. Plasse. Ann E. Cain was organist and Phyllis Casuscelli was soloist. The offertory gifts were presented by Kevin E. and Thomas B. Gamache, nephews of the bride.

A reception at the Four Acres Restaurant, Williamstown, followed.

The bride, who was escorted to the altar by her brother, Ernest G. Gamache, wore a deep empire gown of lagoda crepe, made with high neckline and square yoke of Venice lace, bishop sleeves and attached chapel train.

Her two-tiered elbow length veil was caught to a camelot headpiece also trimmed with Venice lace. She carried a colonial bouquet of red and white sweetheart roses with baby's breath and a shower of ribbons.

Lois M. Dean, a friend of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of pine green interlock knit with white Cluny lace bib and cuffs. Her white picture hat was banded with pine green ribbon shower of bronze ribbons.

Patricia A. Sheldon, a cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid and wore a similar gown in autumn rust knit. Her picture hat had a pine green ribbon band and her basket of yellow and bronze mums had a shower of pine green ribbons.

Annette M. Gamache, the bride's niece, was flower girl and wore a pine green velvet gown trimmed with white Venice lace made by the bride. She carried a small basket of yellow and bronze mums with bronze ribbon trim and wore a headpiece of matching flowers.

Peter Carnegia of Lee, a friend of the bridegroom, was best man. Robert and James Kelly of Lee, also friends of the bridegroom, ushered. Ernest G. Gamache Jr., the bride's nephew, was ring bearer and carried a white satin heart-shaped pillow trimmed with lace and lilies of the valley, also made by the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Carter have left on a wedding trip to Maine and Canada, and will reside at 42 Tyler St., after Oct. 20 when they return.

Mrs. Carter is employed as a secretary by the City of North Adams in the Cemetery and Parks and Recreation Departments.

Her husband, an electrician, previously served five years in the Royal Air Force in England.

Patricia Dunlap, Kent O'Connell

MONROE—Patricia Dunlap, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dunlap of Oceanside, N.Y., and Kent O'Connell, son of Mr. and Mrs. O'Connell of Hicksville, N.Y., were married Saturday, Oct. 4.

The ceremony was performed by the waterfalls at the Dunbar Brook in Monroe at 2 p.m. by the Rev. Robert Buckwalter, pastor of the Congregational Church, North Adams.

Barbara Schlaam was maid of honor. Lori Dunlap, sister of the bride, and Erin O'Connell, the bridegroom's sister were bridesmaids.

Dennis O'Connell was best man for his brother. Ushers were Gary Gaffney and Paul Proctor, friends of the bridegroom.

A reception followed at the South Readsboro Community Hall with a smorgasbord dinner planned and served by members of the club.

The bride is a freshman at the North Adams State College. The bridegroom a graduate from the McGill University, Canada is taking a post graduate course at the State College.

After a honeymoon in Canada they plan to make their home in North Adams. Guests present were relatives and friends of the couple from Long Island.

Jane A. Schechterle, Paul C. Morse

SHELBURNE FALLS—Jane Allison Schechterle of 51 Quincy St., North Adams, and Paul Clifford Morse of 65 Meadow St., North Adams, were married Saturday, Oct. 4, at 11 a.m. in Trinity Fellowship Church here by the Rev. Benjamin New. Horace York was organist and Carol Rasmussen was vocalist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Schechterle of 9 Gardner Ave., Shelburne Falls. Mr. Morse's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Morse of 68 Versailles Ave., North Adams.

A reception at the Cora Smith Hall followed the ceremony.

The bride had her sister, Wanda Ankers of Florence as matron of honor. Lois Russell of North Adams, Jane Leach of Winooksi, Vt., and Debra Schechterle of Shattuckville, cousins of the bride, were bridesmaids.

Robin Morse of Lake Placid, N.Y., was his brother's best man. Stanley Dudziak, Michael MacDonald and Russell Brown of North Adams, friends of the bridegroom, ushered.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a lace trimmed white floor length gown of nylon organza made in Victorian style with empire bodice, high neckline, and sheer bishop sleeves with lace trimmed ruffle cuffs. The skirt was accented by a chapel veil.

Her chapel length veil of silk illusion edged with Cluny lace was attached to a profile headpiece trimmed with matching lace. She carried a cascade bouquet.

The matron of honor and bridesmaids were dressed alike in caped gowns of muted floral chiffon over lemon yellow crepe, made with empire waists and mandarin collars. They carried cascades of butterscotch and bronze mums and chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Paul C. Morse

Mr. and Mrs. Morse have returned from a wedding trip to Williamsburg, Va., and are residing at 65 Meadow St., North Adams.

The bride and bridegroom are employed as computer operators at the Sprague Electric Co. in North Adams.

Mrs. Morse is a graduate of Mohawk Trail Regional High School and Northampton Junior College.

Her husband, a graduate of Drury High School and North Adams State College, served three years in the Army and spent two and a half years overseas in Germany.

Stephanie Cwalinski, Chester Trzcinski Jr.

ADAMS—Stephanie Cwalinski daughter of Atty. and Mrs. Alexander A. Cwalinski, 33 Quaker St., and Chester J. Trzcinski Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester J. Trzcinski, 8 Quaker St., were married Saturday in St. Stanislaus Kostka Church.

The 11 a.m. wedding ceremony was officiated by the Rev. John Chwalek. John Sumaj was organist and Leon Clermont vocalist.

A reception was held at Turn Hall.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a long white gown of Qiana jersey, with long tapered sleeves accented with imported Venice lace. The gown featured appliques on neckline and sleeves and a full attached chapel length train.

A finger tip veil of Qiana was attached to a Camelot cap of matching imported Venice lace. She carried a colonial bouquet of white roses, white baby's breath with mint green trim and satin streamers.

The maid of honor was Donna St. Cyr, of Boston, a friend of the bride. She wore a fern green polyester knit jacket gown and a large matching velvet picture hat and carried a colonial bouquet of yellow button pompons around a large yellow mum center with green baby's breath.

Bridesmaids included Deborah Trzcinski of Adams, the bridegroom's sister, Joanne Baczek of Middleton a cousin, Mrs. Michael Lavigne of Adams, and Anne Maciacius of Plymouth.

The bridesmaids wore emerald green sister gowns of polyester knit with jackets, featuring a mandarin collar at the gathered neckline and gathered skirt.

Nina B. Underwood, Earle S. Holland

STAMFORD, Vt.—Nina B. Underwood of Main Road and Earle S. Holland of Readsboro were married here at noon Saturday in the Stamford Community Church by Willard E. Busl, pastor. Mrs. Neil Belisle was organist. The church was decorated with vases of white mums.

A reception followed at the Jacksonville home of Mr. and Mrs. Holland Jr., son and daughter-in-law of the bridegroom.

Blanche F. Mills of Jacksonville, a friend of the bride, was matron of honor. Mr. Holland of Jacksonville was his father's best man.

The bride wore a long gown of turquoise blue chiffon over silk crepe,

Mrs. Chester J. Trzcinski Jr.

They wore matching emerald green large picture hats and each carried two long stem yellow mums with green baby's breath tied with a yellow satin ribbon.

Bruce Kopala, of Adams, a friend, served as best man while ushers included Paul Trzcinski the bridegroom's brother, Mark Chittenden, a friend, Edward Menard another friend all three from Adams and Michael Kurpiel of Stamford, Vt.

After a wedding trip to Cape Cod, the couple will reside, after Oct. 14, at 24 Beecher St., Adams.

Elizabeth W. Brooks, Bruce Wile

WILLIAMSTOWN—Elizabeth Walker Brooks of 144 Cole Ave. and Bruce Wile of School Street, Adams, were married Sept. 27 in the Bethel Pentecostal Church with the Rev. Anthony Testasecca officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Walker, Chestnut Street, the bridegroom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wile, Washington Street, Canton.

A reception, held at the American Legion in Williamstown, followed the 3:30 p.m. wedding ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full length long sleeved blue Qiana jersey gown trimmed in white and with matching jacket. She carried a bouquet of ruffled white carnations and baby's breath.

Her sister, Eleanor Walker of Williamstown, was maid of honor. She wore a full length rust and salmon Qiana jersey gown and carried a yellow and rust colonial bouquet.

James Williams, of Williamstown, served as best man.

The couple has returned from a wedding trip through New England and is residing at Briarwood Lane, Marlboro.

The bride works at Sprague Electric and Mr. Wile, a graduate of the Univ. of Maine, is employed by the Sylvania Corp. of Needham.

Barbara A. Canale, Karl A. Schmidt

NORTH ADAMS—Barbara Ann Canale, daughter of Grace Canale of 484 Walnut St., and the late Joseph L. Canale, became the bride of Karl August Schmidt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl W. Schmidt of 160 Eagle St., Saturday, in St. John's Episcopal Church, Williamstown.

The Rev. Douglas G. Burgoyne, rector, officiated at the 11 a.m. ceremony. Suzanne Cleveland and Richard Moon were vocalists.

A reception followed at the 1896 House, Williamstown. Barbara and William Schmidt, sister and brother of the bridegroom, were in charge of the guest book. The wedding cake was made and decorated by the bride's mother. Music was furnished by "Eureka".

The bride had Elaine Busl, a friend, as maid of honor. Susan Meaney, Barbara Luscia and Marylou Willette, friends of the bride, were bridesmaids.

Thomas Hackett of Petersburg, N.Y., a friend of the bridegroom, was best man. Kenneth Jewett of Berlin, N.Y., Philip Larabee and Daniel LaCasse of Williamstown, friends, ushered.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Paul Allegra, wore a gown especially designed for her by Robus' c New York City and made by the bride and her aunt, Mrs. John Canale. The princess style Victorian gown of imported white Italian satin and French reemboirered Chantilly lace had hundreds of hand sewn pearls studding the scrolls. The princess line was accented with two rows of lace from the mandarin collar to the A-line skirt where it flowed into an apron back, outlined in lace and edged with an accordion pleated ruffle which had a fluted edge. The inset train had matching trim and the fitted sleeves were adorned at the cuff with lace and a pleated ruffle.

Her three tiered illusion veil fell from a face frame cap accented with lace and pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white gladiolus, red-orange roses, white daisies and starburst pompons, with touches of orange baby's breath, ivy streamers and white satin ribbons.

The maid of honor wore a scarlet crepe stitch weave polyester gown, made with fitted bodice with front and back pin tucks, square neckline, long bishop sleeves with fitted cuffs, and soft full skirt.

Mrs. Karl A. Schmidt

The bridesmaids wore sister gowns in puffy orange, marigold and moss green. All wore snug fitting caps to match their gowns, each with a side pompon.

They carried identical cascade bouquets of white, yellow and orange-red daisies and starburst pompons with touches of orange baby's breath, oak leaves and wheat.

Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt have left on a wedding trip to Williamsburg and Virginia Beach, Va. They will live at 11 Seneca Drive, Wheel Estates, after Oct. 20.

The bride, who is employed by the Northern Berkshire Mental Health Assn., is a graduate of Drury High School, and attended North Adams State College and State University of New York as a biology and chemistry major.

Her husband attended Williamstown High School and Springfield Trade School. He is majoring in administration and management in the General Electric MFG Program.